

Oliver Schlenker

University of Konstanz, Cluster of Excellence "The Politics of Inequality"
& ZEW - Leibniz Centre for European Economic Research
Mail: oliver.schlenker@uni-konstanz.de

May 2023

Research Interests	Labor Economics and Health Economics . Especially on how technological change affects employees in economic terms, their health, and what mitigates the effect (the role of firm and individual characteristics).
Academic Background	Ph.D. student in Economics since 2020 University of Konstanz, Germany <ul style="list-style-type: none">Supervisors: Prof. Dr. Sebastian Findeisen and Prof. Dr. Nicolas Ziebarth M.Sc. in Economics (Dual Degree) 2020 University of Konstanz, Germany, & University of Rome "Tor Vergata", Italy <ul style="list-style-type: none">Final grade: Very good (Master thesis: 1.0/A)
Employment History	Researcher since 2021 ZEW - Leibniz Centre for European Economic Research, Labour Markets and Social Insurance, Mannheim, Germany Research fellow since 2020 Cluster of Excellence "The Politics of Inequality" & Chair of Economic Policy, University of Konstanz, Germany Research intern 2020 Leibniz Centre for European Economic Research (ZEW), Mannheim, Germany Research assistant 2016 - 2017 Chair of Economic and Social Policy, Prof. em. Dr. Friedrich Breyer, University of Konstanz, Germany
Teaching Experience	Bachelor seminar in Public Economics (advisor) 2020 - 2023 Third year B.Sc. Economics, University of Konstanz, Germany Preparation course in Microeconomics (lecturer) 2020 - 2021 First year M.Sc. Political Economy, University of Konstanz, Germany Microeconomics and Economic Policy (teaching assistant) 2017 - 2019 First and second year B.Sc. Economics, University of Konstanz, Germany
Work in Progress	The Effect of Nurse Shortages on Quality of Care in Hospitals - Evidence from the Swiss-German Border (solo-authored) Robot Council: How Work Councils Mitigate the Effect of Automation on Workers (with Wolfgang Dauth and Sebastian Findeisen)

Curse or Blessing? The Impact of Digitalization on Workers' Health
(with Melanie Arntz, Stephan Maurer, and Sebastian Findeisen)

Entry Regulations and the Provision of Primary Care
(with Eduard Brüll and Davud Rostam-Afschar)

Keeping the Doctor Away: The Effect of the Access to Primary Care on Populations' Health
(with Eduard Brüll and Davud Rostam-Afschar)

Conference and Workshop
Presentations

2023 (incl. scheduled): European Association of Labor Economists Conference (Prague), German Economic Association Annual Conference (Regensburg), Workshop on the Economics of the Healthcare Workforce (Uni Surrey), European Health Economists Association PhD Conference (Bologna), European Association for Research in Industrial Economics Conference (Rome)