

Science Networks for Women in Academia

Name	Description	Link - Description	Admission	Link - Admission
SoapboxScience	SoapboxScience is a novel public outreach platform for promoting women and non-binary scientists and the science that they do.	http://soapboxscience.org	Admission via online application form	http://soapboxscience.org/become-local-organiser/
European Platform of Women Scientists (EPWS)	EPWS is an international non-profit organization that represents the needs, concerns, interests, and aspirations of more than 12'000 women scientists in Europe and beyond.	https://epws.org	Individuals and institutions are encouraged to apply via online form	https://epws.org/become-a-member/
Association for Women in Psychology (AWP)	AWP is an interdisciplinary organization that attends to issues and concerns at the intersections of feminism and psychology.	https://www.awpsych.org	Membership is open to graduated individuals as well as students.	https://www.awpsych.org/membership.php
National Women's Studies Association (NWSA)	NWSA is an organization committed to promoting and supporting the production and dissemination of knowledge about women and gender through teaching, learning, research, and service in academic and other settings.	https://www.nwsa.org/page/About-NWSA#about-NWSA	Individuals and Institutions are encouraged to apply for membership via the designated form.	https://www.nwsa.org/page/Membership
Women and Politics	The Women and Politics Specialist Group provides a focus for PSA members whose research is concerned with women or gender. The group has a commitment to encourage the presence and visibility of women in the PSA and the discipline, while combating sexism.	https://www.psa.ac.uk/specialist-groups/women-and-politics	Admission only for members of the Political Studies Association.	https://www.psa.ac.uk/join-specialist-group?cid2=32554
Women in Network Science (WiNS)	WiNS is dedicated to foster opportunities for education, employment, and career advancement of women, trans and non-binary genders in network science.	https://sites.google.com/view/womeninnetworkscience/?pli=1	Membership is open to everyone; ECRs and students are particularly encouraged to join (via online form)	https://sites.google.com/view/womeninnetworkscience/society/membership
Women in Southeast Asian Social Sciences (WiSEASS)	WiSEASS is a network of female social scientists doing research on Southeast Asia.	https://wiseass.me	Admission via online application form	https://wiseass.me
500 Women Scientists	500 Women Scientists is a network whose mission is to serve society by making science open, inclusive, and accessible by fighting racism, patriarchy, and oppressive societal norms.	https://500womenscientists.org	Several ways to get involved, e.g. joining or founding a local group	https://500womenscientists.org/join-our-community
Sociologists for Women in Society (SWS)	SWS is a nonprofit professional feminist organization dedicated to encouraging the development of sociological feminist theory and scholarship; transforming academia through feminist leadership, career development, and institutional diversity; promoting social justice; and supporting the publication of cutting-edge feminist social science.	https://socwomen.org/about/	Application via online application form; membership is also open to students	https://sws.memberclicks.net

Women's and Gender Studies Research Network	The Women's and Gender Studies Research Network promotes and supports women's and gender studies in all areas of societies, aims to understand and discuss existing gender inequalities and encourages debate on women's, feminist and gender issues.	https://www.europeansociology.org/research-networks/rn33-womens-and-gender-studies	Admission only for members of the European Sociology Association	https://www.europeansociology.org/membership
ECPR Standing Group on Gender and Politics	The ECPR Standign Group on Gender and Politics forms a broad-based network on issues relating to the study of gender and sexuality in politics and world politics.	https://ecpr.eu/standinggroup/standinggrouphome.aspx?ID=8 https://standinggroups.ecpr.eu/gender/	Admission only for members of the European Consortium for Political Research (ECPR)	https://standinggroups.ecpr.eu/gender/?page_id=363
Women in Conflict Studies (WICS)	WICS' primary goal is to help integrate women into the profession early, and to provide women with an additional source of contacts working in the same general research area with whom they can collaborate and exchange feedback on their work, as well as gain advice on professional matters, both gender related and non-gender related.	https://www.womeninconflictstudies.org	Both women faculty members as well as female graduate students can join a respective listserv	https://www.womeninconflictstudies.org/join.html
Gender and Feminism Research Network (GFRN)	GFRN brings together scholars and students at UCL and beyond and aims to explore the points where gender and feminist politics intersect with a diverse range of power relations and social movements.	https://www.ucl.ac.uk/institute-of-advanced-studies/gender-and-feminism-research-network	Individuals interested in getting involved in the network's activities are encouraged to email ucl.gfrn@ucl.ac.uk	https://www.ucl.ac.uk/institute-of-advanced-studies/gender-and-feminism-research-network/contact-us
Gender and Politics Research Network in South-East Europe (GenPolSEE)	GenPolSEE is an informal, board-based feminist network of researchers interested in fostering research on gender and politics in South-East Europe. The thematic focus of the network revolves around the intersection of gender and representation, backlash, and public policy.	https://ifdt.bg.ac.rs/index.php/2022/12/08/gender-and-politics-research-network-in-south-east-europe-genpolsee-2/?lang=en	GenPolSEE does not accept new members at the moment, but plans to extend admission once the network is consolidated	n/a
Gender in Diplomacy Network (GenDip)	The GenDip program maintains a network of scholars and practitioners interested in gender and diplomacy, to stimulate fruitful discussion, research collaborations and sharing of information.	https://www.gu.se/en/gen-dip/about-us/gen-dip-network	GenDip maintains a mailing list for gender and diplomacy scholars; interested individuals are encouraged to email ingrid.andreasson@gu.se	https://www.gu.se/en/gen-dip/about-us/gen-dip-network
Research Committee on Women, Gender and Society (RC32)	RC32 is a non-profit association for scientific purposes in the field of sociology and social sciences and aims to improve research and promote perspectives on women's rights.	https://www.isa-rc32.org	Application via online form	https://www.isa-rc32.org/copy-of-about

Women's & Gender Studies Research Network (WGSRN)	WGSRN is an open access preprint server that provides a venue for authors to showcase their research papers in a digital library, speeding up the dissemination and providing the scholarly community access to groundbreaking working papers and early-stage research.	https://www.ssrn.com/index.cfm/en/wgsrn/	Papers can be submitted online; SSRN membership is required	https://hq.ssrn.com/login/pubSignInJoin.cfm
Girls' Studies Research Network (GSRN)	GSRN intends to bring together academic researchers, practitioners and students working in girls' studies in all disciplines and disciplinary fields. The network is open to any members from any part of the world.	https://www.yorku.ca/cfr/girls-studies-research-network/	?	?
Feminist Internet Research Network (FIRN)	FIRN focuses on the making of a feminist internet, seeing this as critical to bringing about transformation in gendered structures of power that exist on- and offline. Members undertake data-driven research that provides substantial evidence to drive change in policy and law.	https://firn.genderit.org	Interested individuals are encouraged to email wpr@apcwomen.org	https://firn.genderit.org/connect
Women in Economics Initiative	The Women in Economics Initiative is a non-profit association established to advance gender equality in the field of economics. It aims to encourage equal opportunity in the economics profession across the academics, business, and public sectors.	https://women-in-economics.com	Individuals and organizations are encouraged to apply for membership via online application form.	https://women-in-economics.com/become-a-member/
CEPR Women in Economics Initiative	The CEPR Women in Economics Initiative aims to redress gender imbalances in the economic profession, partnering with CEPR member organizations to promote women within the field.	https://cepr.org/themes/women-economics	Admission only for members of the Centre for Economic Policy Research (CEPR); interested individuals can email pburesova@cepr.org	n/a
Women in Economic History (WIEH)	WIEH aims to provide a targeted and supportive network of scholars in order to present research interests, activities and results related to gender perspectives in economic history.	https://www.women-in-economic-history.com/wieh	Interested individuals are encouraged to contact women.in.econ.hist@gmail.com ; ECRs are particularly welcome	https://www.women-in-economic-history.com/mitgliedschaftmembership
Women in Academia Support Network (WIASN)	WIASN is a global networking, training and consultancy community operating across sectors and geography aiming to promote gender equitable research for a better future.	https://www.wiasn.org	Interested individuals and institutions are encouraged to join the network's facebook group and/or email kelly@wiasn.com	https://www.facebook.com/groups/905644729576673 https://www.wiasn.org/blank-page
Women and Ageing Research Network (WARN)	WARN aims to foster discussions and projects about intersections of the cultural, social, and medical dimensions of women and ageing, providing a space for creative collaborations among researchers in women and ageing studies.	https://womenandageing.network/about-us/	Interested individuals are encouraged to email ageing.women@gmail.com or fill out the network's contact form	https://womenandageing.network/contact/

Minerva LAW (Legal and Academic Women's) Network	The Minerva LAW Network is an initiative linked with Max Planck Law that brings together female lawyers, academics, policy-makers, and journalists.	https://minervalawnetwork.com/members/about-us/	Interested individuals are encouraged to email minervalawnet@law.mpg.de	https://minervalawnetwork.com/members/
Law, Gender and Sexuality (LEX) Research Network	The LEX Network is intended as a resource for sharing research, fostering collaboration and nurturing dialogue on a range of issues that relate to and shape feminist research on the intersections of law, gender and sexuality globally.	https://www.lexnetwork.org/mission-statement/	Interested individuals are encouraged to email lexmembership@lexnetwork.com	https://www.lexnetwork.org
Black Academic Network (BAN)	BAN is a membership network exclusively for black academics that aims to provide a safe space for black scholars to network, collaborate and receive peer support.	https://blackacademicnetwork.org/about/	BAN is currently in its testing stages and will be opening up for members shortly; interested individuals can nevertheless apply via online form	https://blackacademicnetwork.org/get-involved/
Faculty of Color Network	The Faculty of Color Network is an online-resource for Faculty of Color in Academia, providing information for promoting a more inclusive and diverse environment at research institutions.	https://facultyofcolornetwork.com/	n/a	n/a

Last updated: May 03, 2023